April

Domestic Violence and LGBT Community featuring Jennifer Nye, Community Educator from Pillars

April 16, 12:30-1:45 p.m., Moraine Rooms, Building M

Domestic violence has no boundaries. Domestic violence effects women, men, children of all ethnicities, cultural backgrounds, socioeconomic status, education background, and sexual orientation. Members of the LGBT community face additional barriers in finding resources and support when confronting domestic violence within their relationships. According to the National Coalition Against Domestic Violence (NCADV), “ 1 in 3 women and 1 in 7 men have experienced physical violence by an intimate partner within their lifetime. Jennifer Nye, Community Educator from Pillars, will explore these issues and help us raise awareness. This event is part of the One Book program on Giovanni's Room by James Baldwin.

Remembering the T in LGBT: Creating Transgender Awareness

Tuesday, April 28, 11am-12:15 in Building M. Moraine Room 3

Presentation by Kelly George, LCPC, psychotherapist at Live Oak in Chicago.

Topics will include:

- understanding of the vocabulary and terms
- understanding gender identity
- issues facing trans-identified individuals

PAST EVENTS

Tuesday, Sept. 23, 12:30-1:45 p.m., Building L, Library Lounge

The "Queer" movement challenges us to think beyond our limited conceptions of gender and sexuality. Sociologist Jeffrey McCully will discuss the ways that gender expression and human sexuality are socially constructed based on norms that change from one society to another and across time. Jeffrey will also explore how gender and sexuality intersect with other systems of difference, such as class, race, and ethnicity. We will also consider the progress that has been made in recognizing the needs of the LGBT community and the challenges that lay ahead.

Writing for a Change: James Baldwin and the 1960s featuring special guest John D'Emilio

View and Listen to this event here: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=eMF42ksLnsk> (<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=eMF42ksLnsk>)

Feb. 17, 12:30-1:45 p.m., Oremus Theater, Fine and Performing Arts Center

The 1960s are remembered as an era of popular activism, of people demonstrating and organizing for justice, equality, and peace. Writing was also a key way of making change, and James Baldwin, through his novels and his essays, was on the cutting edge in the 1960s, challenging injustice and inequality based on race and sexuality. This talk featuring the University of Illinois at Chicago scholar John D'Emilio will explore Baldwin's life and work in this important era. This event is part of the One Book program on Giovanni's Room by James Baldwin.
