OTHER FAVORITE CREATIONS THAT FOLLOW YOUR DIETARY RESTRICTIONS?

I developed a pie recipe with mashed potatoes as the filling over gluten-free pastry. It's Southwest-inspired. It has tomatoes, green chiles, onions and cheese in the filling. I also enjoy a vegetable stew with mixed fresh vegetables, and again, this recipe has green chiles. I use small whole potatoes as one of the vegetables to make it extra filling.

WHAT'S YOUR BEST-LOVED KITCHEN TOOL OR GADGET?

Nothing fancy! I like a good frying pan, a heavy Dutch oven, a variety of well-balanced knives and a food processor. I also use a slow cooker for my vegetable stew. It's nice to have something that allows me to go and work in the garden or in my pottery studio while it does the cooking.

HAVE YOU ENTERED A COOKING CONTEST BEFORE?

Yes, I entered several contests more than 25 years ago, and I won a first-place award for a steak salad recipe!

Gluten-Free Brownie Bars

I cannot eat dairy or gluten, but I crave brownies. This recipe sure is a satisfying substitute! They're done when the edges are lightly browned.

+ cooling • Makes: 16 servings

- 1 cup almond butter
- ½ cup agave nectar
- 1 large egg, room temperature
- ½ tsp. salt
- ½ tsp. baking powder

2. Bake until edges begin to brown and a toothpick inserted in center comes out with moist crumbs (do not overbake), 30-35 minutes. Cool completely in pan on a wire rack, at least 2 hours. Lifting with parchment, remove brownies from pan. Cut into bars. Store in an airtight container.
