How Can I Use the Library Resources and Services?

ON campus

Online

Looking for a textbook for class?

Textbooks available in limited capacity. Check here to search by course code (COM 101, MTH 098 etc.) Please communicate with your instructor if you have issues acquiring course textbooks.

Looking for something to READ or WATCH?

Physical material

Ebooks and streaming video

Learn more about searching our catalog for ebooks here. Be sure to check out our After Class Collection for the latest releases.

Digital research material

Here is a guide for our Research Tools page to learn about using our catalog and databases to find e-resources and articles, OR learn more about accessing e-resources in this video.

Looking for a place to study ALONE or as a GROUP?

For myself

For a group

We have limited space available for individual students. We do ask to limit this time to ONE HOUR.

We cannot accommodate groups at this time. Study rooms are closed with social distancing in place; however, we suggest downloading these FREE webconferencing tools to collaborate: Google Meet, WebEx or Zoom.

Do you need to use a COMPUTER and/or the internet?

In the Library

At home

We have a limited number of desktop computers available for use. Social distancing guidelines are in place. We do ask to limit time to ONE HOUR. If you have special time or technology requirements, please contact us to set up an appointment.

To borrow a laptop (Dell or Apple), iPad, or Wi-Fi hotspot, schedule a time to pick up available devices here. This video includes directions on how to book these devices.

Do you need a TECH DEVICE like a camera, Go Pro, mics or calculator?

In the Library

Place a hold on these items through the Library catalog. Click here for a guide on how to place a hold or request an item. You will receive an email from us when you can pick up your item.

Need an anatomy model?

Online

Our physical anatomy models are not available at this time. We have curated a list of online anatomy model alternatives.

Do you need to talk with a librarian about RESEARCH ?

From home

In person

We strongly encourage you to work with us remotely when possible. If needed, you can make an appointment in advance to meet with a librarian. Make an appointment here.

To best prepare for your visit, read our social distancing procedures.

Walk-ups will be accepted; however, wait times will be increased with occupancy limits.

Librarians can help you find research articles and books, and help you make proper citations – all remotely!

You can contact a librarian in various ways. Go to the Ask a Librarian page for details.

Do you need MEDIA editing software?

Online apps

In the Library audio editing

Audacity audio editing software is available on all Library computers. You may come in to use the program. We do ask to limit time to ONE HOUR. Check out these free editing apps that you can download on your personal device.

Our media lab is closed, and the editing software is unavailable.
